Implementation of Guidelines of Statutory/Regulatory Bodies

Our Janata Shikshan Sanga's Shree Tammannappa Chikodi Arts and Commerce College, Banhatti has implemented a robust mechanism for the redressal of student issues, including sexual harassment and ragging instances, in compliance with the rules of India's statutory/regulatory organizations.

The University Grants Commission (UGC) has established recommendations on sexual harassment prevention and redressal in higher education institutions. To address sexual harassment allegations, our institution has established an Anti-Sexual Harassment Cell. To ensure a fair and unbiased investigation of complaints, the committees are made up of senior academic members and student representatives.

The University Grants Commission (UGC) has recently issued guidelines on the prevention and prohibition of ragging in higher education institutions. To maintain a secure and ragging-free campus, our institution has formed an Anti-Ragging Committee (ARC). The committee is made up of senior academic members and student representatives who work together to prevent and address ragging.

In addition, the UGC has published guidelines for SC/ST students. Our institution has established a SC/ST cell to handle any complaints of caste, tribal, or community discrimination or harassment. To ensure fair and speedy settlement of concerns, the committee includes senior faculty members, representatives from the SC/ST community, and student representatives.

The implementation of these guidelines ensures a transparent and efficient mechanism for the redressal of student grievances in our Institution. We take the safety and well-being of our students seriously and are committed to providing a safe and inclusive environment for all.
