7.3.1: Portray the performance of the Institution in one area distinctive to its priority and thrust

STC IS THE FIRST CHOICE FOR MONETORY NEEDS

Janata Shikshan Sangh was established by the great Visionary, Educationist, Philanthropist and His Holiness Shri Tammannappa Chikodi in the year 1929. Since then it has been imparting quality education to the poor, downtrodden and underprivileged students in general and weaving community in particular.

The vision of the founder father to bring higher educations to the door step of Banhatti and Rabakvi people.

Since the majority of the people in the city, belong to poor weaving community, they are facing financial constraints. Our management led by our dynamic chairman, emulating the same path as our founder father has dreamed of.

Our institution is relieving the burden of poor parents providing free education. This financial assistance given by our management are as follows

Free Admission

The students who are poor and meritorious are getting free admission in the college. Since the government advised all educational institutions not to receive any fees from the girl child; hence our institution provides free admission to the girl child.

Our management is kind enough to provide free education to the poor children and the children of deceased employees.

Corpus Fund

Our institution maintained a sufficient Corpus fund for education of poor and meritorious students and for the employee of the Institution.

Not only the Institution but also many donors deposited their money in the name of the college for the education of meritorious students. The total corpus amount is Rs 2 lakh which has been used for the benefit of students. The interest earned on this deposit can be distributed to meritorious students in the annual gathering of the college.

Adopting of poor students

College staff members are generous enough to adopt few poor and meritorious students and paying their educational expenses. Each teacher adopting 2 students every year and fulfilling their financial needs.

Special Funds to Sports personalities (Students):

STC college has been giving lot of priority to the sports students, the students who have participated at the state and national level sports will get free admission in the college. Besides every year college has been giving Rs 1,000/- to every university blue student.

The sports students TA and DA will be borne by the college, to allow them to participate in the various competitions. The college is able to provide a fund of nutrient for wrestling students.

Our management and the chairman also kind enough to donate Rs 5,000 to every champion.

Shri Sharan Suttatti's Corpus funds:

The Great industrialist and the alumni of our institution Shri Sharan Suttatti of Pune, who is kind hearted and generous enough to give Rs.1,50,000/- every year for the poor and meritorious students, the special academic achievers, sports achievers getting the financial benefit of this Corpus fund.

Funds to NSS activity:

The NSS is inculcating social obligation, National solidarity, patriotism, secularism and the leadership abilities among the students. In our college there are two units each comprising a hundred students financed by RCUB and other one is self-finance unit for the self-finance unit. College bear all the expenses and also voluntarily teachers donate funds to organise special camps, besides many donor are also able to gift groceries and the T-Shirts for NSS volunteers.

Financial supports to rank holders

STC college students are getting ranks every year in one or other courses, rank holders will be financially supported by the management. Our management is kind enough to give Rs. 5000 to everyone who gets a ranks at University level.

"Earn while you learn": scheme

One of the best practices of the library department is "Earn while you learn" scheme. Under this scheme, 2 poor and meritorious students foreach semester were selected and general services of the library will be assigned to them in response Rs 650 per month for each student will be given as consideration. The students will work for 2 hours in leisure hours of their classes and he can bear his academic expenditure without depending on their parents. This practice increases value of money in life, and teach lesson of earning money.

Fund to disable students

The disabled students who take the admission in the college will be adopted by the teachers, such students will get financial benefit, personal care, career guidance and counselling by the teachers.

Education loan

The poor students who are facing financial constraints will get the loan from the banks. The college is supporting them to apply for Education Loan by giving required documents.

Scholarship

Our College is providing financial assistance by offering various scholarship facilities to the enrolled students.

The main occupation of the Rabkavi-Banahatti people is weaving. Weavers are of a labor class, by weaving sarees they earn their livelihood. Their earning is not sufficient enough to save money hence majority of the weaving community is the poor class.

The STC college is offering the various scholarship such as States scholarship.

- Vidyashree.
- National scholarship
- NGO's.
 - Sitaram Jindal Foundations.
 - Somumya Vidyavihar Trust Mumbai "Help a child a study Project".
 - Vidyaposhak (Despanda Foundation).

During the fourth cycle, total Rs 3,41,43,372 (Three Cores Forty One Lakh Forty Three Thousand Three Hundred Seventy Two only) were collected from the all sources. On an average of Rs 5512 were received by the students. The total number of recipients are 6194 where the total strength of the students is 6981 hence percentage of total beneficiaries was 88.72 %

This shows that the majority of the students are receiving scholarship benefits every year.
